

Año 11, N° 2917, miércoles 03 de abril de 2019

I. NORMAS LEGALES

[No se publicaron normas de relevancia penal]

II. NOTICIAS DE INTERÉS

INTERNACIONAL

1. Malaysia's former PM Najib to go on trial for corruption

KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia's disgraced former leader Najib Razak will go on trial on Wednesday (Apr3) over a multi-billion-dollar financial scandal that contributed to his long-ruling coalition's downfall last year and sent shockwaves around the world.

2. Brazil ex-President Temer indicted on charges involving nuclear plant bribes

RIO DE JANEIRO (Reuters) - Former Brazilian President Michel Temer was indicted on Tuesday on corruption charges brought by prosecutors who said he took part in a bribery scheme related to the Angra 3 nuclear power plant complex on the coast near Rio de Janeiro.

3. Francisco González dice que BBVA no compró acciones de Bankia para tratar de parar la salida a Bolsa

El expresidente de la entidad relata que recibió presiones políticas para entrar en la operación y que no lo hizo porque "no valía nada"

4. Fribourg Law LLM: The gateway to a top career in compliance

There's no better place to study law than the cosmopolitan city of Fribourg, located in central Switzerland — the centre of one of the most important clusters of multinational headquarters in the world. Fribourg is ideally placed at an equal distance between Zurich, Basel and Geneva and is surrounded by a fast-growing area of economic development. This strategic geographical location makes it an ideal learning environment and a place for students to pick up new languages.

5. Public finance professionals 'must take the ethical lead'

Public finance professionals have a vital role to play in building trust and resilience, the Scottish Government public finance minister has told CIPFA members.