

Año 11, N° 2940, viernes 26 de abril de 2019

Coordinadora
Virginia Naval Linares
Colaborador
Alvaro Quispe Vidal Arellano

I. NORMAS LEGALES

1. Resolución N° 849-2019-MP-FN

Dan por concluido nombramiento y nombran fiscales en los distritos fiscales de Madre de Dios y Lima Norte.

II. NOTICIAS DE INTERÉS

INTERNACIONAL

1. [Venezuela] Arreaza amenaza con tomar la embajada de EEUU en Caracas por "reciprocidad"

La embajada de Venezuela en Washington, objeto de pugna entre el gobierno de Nicolás Maduro y el opositor Juan Guaidó sigue ocupada por activistas chavistas y en la que el gobierno de Estados Unidos estaría dispuesto a desalojarlos si así lo dispone el presidente interino reconocido por más de 50 países.

2. [Estados Unidos] Leader of Newark Drug Trafficking Organization Charged with Continuing Criminal Enterprise

An Essex County, New Jersey, man has been indicted on an additional charge stemming from his role as the leader of a drug trafficking organization that dealt heroin and crack cocaine in and around Newark, U.S. Attorney Craig Carpenito announced today.

3. China's measures to combat money laundering and terrorist financing

The FATF today published a report on the anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing (AML/CFT) system of the People's Republic of China (China).

4. [Reino Unido] Judge berates global firm's 'lack of rigour' in privacy case

A leading media lawyer has received a judicial rap on the knuckles over his client's behaviour during a high-profile privacy action. Granting an injunction protecting the identity of a businessman who was the subject of a corruption investigation, The Honourable Mr Justice Nicklin said a 'lack of rigour' by the defendant's solicitors' had contributed to an earlier court hearing being misled.